

OVARIAN CANCER SIGNS & SYMPTOMS

- Anyone born with ovaries is at risk for ovarian cancer.
- There is no effective screening or early-detection test for ovarian cancer. The Pap test does not detect ovarian cancer.
- Know the signs and symptoms to help you make informed healthcare decisions.

BLOATING

PELVIC OR ABDOMINAL PAIN

TROUBLE EATING OR FEELING FULL QUICKLY

URINARY FREQUENCY

PAIN
DURING SEX

BACK PAIN

FATIGUE

MENSTRUAL CHANGES

UPSET STOMACH, HEARTBURN, OR CONSTIPATION

*If symptoms continue for two weeks, contact a doctor immediately.
Consult a gynecologic oncologist if cancer is suspected.*

